

Out Space Enterprises

Corporate

Resources on Earth are finite, and the ability to expand the playing ground into the outer world is an opportunity that corporations cannot afford to ignore. We provide businesses of all sizes with the ability to expand their horizons, in the most literal sense possible.

Government

From NASA, to a local government looking to expand their communications, Outer Space is looking to help. We provide contract services to all different sizes of government.

Personal

Whether you're an evil businessmen, or a Middle Class family looking for an Out of This World vacation. From those looking to exploit the Universe with us, or just to find a reason to avoid Florida, we're here for you.
